2) Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Mission Statement

The North Dublin Muslim National School is a co-educational primary school under the patronage of the Islamic Foundation of Ireland. The school is regulated by the Department of Education and Skills and evaluated by their Inspectorate. We follow the Primary School Curriculum and cater for the physical, academic, social and spiritual needs of the children whilst nurturing an Islamic way of being.

Our Vision

The North Dublin Muslim National School is a caring place where each member of our community is welcomed, respected and valued, irrespective of their gender, background, belief or nationality.

In our school we aspire to provide a well-ordered, caring, happy and secure learning atmosphere where each child is encouraged to reach their full potential to become responsible, happy individuals with a passion for learning. We do this by providing a holistic, child centred education.

Our Values

We promote the learning of languages and an awareness of their place in our culture and heritage. We develop among our pupils an appreciation of creation in all its forms, as inclusivity is at the heart of teaching.

We endeavour to enhance the self-esteem of everyone in the school community, to imbue in the pupils respect for themselves, other people and property and to encourage the development of personal responsibility.

We encourage the children to grow as individuals in a school environment in which honesty, respect and acceptance are core values. We foster an understanding and appreciation of both diversity and individuality and aim to play an active role in the local and Islamic community.

We work in partnership with parents to prepare our pupils for their place in a modern society by nurturing a sense of empathy and the ability to interact socially with confidence. We hope that by teaching these skills we will empower the pupils to become good citizens.

School Ethos

The North Dublin Muslim National School has an Islamic ethos which permeates throughout the day. The spiritual, intellectual, social and physical growth of the children is fostered in the light of the Quran and Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammed (ṣallā -llāhu ‘alayhī wa-’ālihī wa-sallam). All pupils receive thirty minutes of Religion/Arabic per day. In addition, pupils from 3rd to 6th Class pray once a day. The length of the school day is extended to facilitate afternoon prayer.

Aims of the School

Our aim is to create a caring, warm Islamic atmosphere within which pupils can develop to their full potential. Through the teaching and practice of Islam, in the light of the Qur’an, we aim to help our pupils to develop a love for the Creator and confidence in their identity as young Muslims.

By providing stimulating and differentiated tasks, we aim to acknowledge and actively encourage all abilities within the school. Our target is to continuously assess and positively reward the effort and progress made by our pupils. We have high expectations of our pupils, not only in academic achievement, but also in standards of behaviour, appearance and character, both inside and outside the school.

We hope to maintain close co-operation between the school, parents, the wider Muslim community and the Irish community in general.

Within the context and parameters of the Department of Education and Skills regulations and programmes, the rights of the Patron and the funding and resources available, the school supports the principle of:

- Providing equality of access and participation for all pupils which does not discriminate against them because of gender, race, disability, special needs or ethnic origin.
- Parental choice in relation to enrolment.
- Respect of the diversity of values, beliefs, traditions, social circumstances, languages and ways of life in society.

School Curriculum

In keeping with the Primary School Curriculum (1999) and the Primary Language Curriculum the school currently follows a well-balanced and broadly based curriculum, which promotes the spiritual, moral, cultural, intellectual and physical development of all pupils.

It is the policy of the management of the school, that the school will follow curricular programmes prescribed by the Department of Education and Skills, taking cognisance of the distinctly Islamic Ethos of the school, which may be amended from time to time in accordance with Section 9 and 30 of the Education Act (1998).
